President, Congressional, Statewide, Legislative District, Judicial District, and County Officers

A. Election Date: November 4, 2008

The election is held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of each even numbered year. NDCC § 16.1-13-01

B. Placement of Candidate's Name on Ballot

President of the United States

Presidential candidate names are placed on the General Election ballot by three options:

- through endorsement by established political parties in North Dakota
- through the gathering of signatures in the petition process
- through the write-in process

(For more detailed information concerning running for the office of President, please see the Running for President and Vice President of the United States document on our web site.)

Candidate names for all other offices are placed on the General Election ballot by the following two options:

B.1 Primary Election – Statewide, Legislative, Judicial, and County

The statewide or legislative candidate nominated by a political party receiving the highest number of votes for that office in the political party's Primary Election is automatically placed on the General Election ballot. The two candidates for a no-party statewide, judicial district, or county office receiving the most votes are automatically placed on the General Election ballot. No person may be deemed nominated as a candidate for any office at any Primary Election unless the person receives a number of votes equal to the number of signatures that were required to petition for the office at the Primary Election.

B.2 Certificate of Independent Nomination – Statewide and Legislative

To appear on the ballot as an independent candidate for a statewide office (excluding no-party identified offices); a candidate must file with the Secretary of State a Certificate of Independent Nomination. It must be in the physical possession of the Secretary of State no later than 4:00 p.m. on the 60th day before the election and it must contain the signatures of no fewer than 1,000 signatures of qualified electors of the state. To appear on the ballot as an independent candidate for a legislative office, a candidate must file with the County Auditor in the county of the candidate's residence a Certificate of Independent Nomination. It must be in the physical possession of the County Auditor no later than 4:00 p.m. on the 60th day before the election and it must contain the signatures of a least 2% of the resident population of the legislative district, but in no case are more than 300 signatures required. A Certificate of Independent Nomination may not be circulated or signed more than 90 days before the date the petition must be filed with the applicable filing officer. Forms are available from the Secretary of State or the County Auditor.

Note: Independent nomination for no-party statewide, judicial, or county office is not allowed for the General Election. To appear on the General Election ballot, candidates for no-party offices must be one of two winners in the June Primary Election. NDCC §§ 16.1-12-02, 16.1-12-02.3, and 16.1-12-04
